Attention Fresh Secondary One Students!

It is quite a norm that new Secondary One students often fail in their first few attempts in literature.... Why not spend this break productively? Give yourself a head start in learning and understanding the various aspects of English Literature...

An Introduction to English Literature

This is an 8 session English Literature appreciation workshop. We recommend this for post-PSLE students moving on to Secondary One as it is essential to give P6 students some insight to literature.

In this workshop, we hope to provide students with some essential skills and knowledge to successfully navigate them from familiar "primary school English" to an unknown one.

Workshop Objectives

By the end of the workshop, pupils will :

- Have an overview of the subject
- Learn the basic features of prose, poetry and drama
- Understand and apply literary devices
- Be exposed to a considerable selection of literary works by different writers
- Learn to understand and answer questions pertaining to the study of literature

Course content:

- Lesson 1 - Introduction to Literature
- Lesson 2 - Myths and Legends of yesteryears
- Lesson 3 - The Magic of Poetry 1
- Lesson 4 - The Magic of Poetry 2
